Where you'll be

Bygdøy, Oslo, Norway

The area immediately surrounding the harbour is a green oasis without traffic. It consists of forested areas with signposted walking trails, protected farmland and a sandy public beach. Inside walking distance you will find the Bygdøy Royal Estate, the Viking ship museum and Norway's largest open air museum of cultural history , "Folkemuseet" with 160 historical buildings and the impressive Gol Stave church from the year 1200.
